
Level 4, Pearson BTEC, Higher National Certificate in Computing.

What is the course about?

This level of national qualification is designed to provide specialist work-related experience and skills for those in relevant employment. The Level 4 qualification is equivalent to the first year of an undergraduate degree programme.

What are the entry requirements?

A BTEC level 3 qualification, or adequate performance in GCE A-level subjects, or relevant working experience. Entrants are expected to attend an interview to confirm the suitability of the course for them. It is recognised that mature entrants may not meet these specific requirements and are looking to retrain, but are welcome to apply.

What subjects will I study?

Core mandatory units: Programming

Networking

Professional Practice

Database Design and Development

Security

Managing a Successful Computing Project

Plus two from (subject to availability): Computer

Systems Architecture Software

Development Lifecycles Website

Design and Development

How will I be assessed?

Assessment is by written coursework and practical activities.

What are my progression and career options?

Potential career progression with existing employer

BSc (Hons) Degree in Computer Science, Applied Computing, Cybersecurity

Who should I contact?

All enquiries regarding this course can be made through the contact form on the right or through the Higher Education Administration Team by telephoning 648210 or email: HE@ucm.ac.im