IDEAS AND MOVEMENTS THAT HAVE CHANGED THE WORLD

This course will look at Ancient Greece and the coming of democracy, Italian renaissance, religious reformation, ideas of the enlightenment and the theories of Darwinism and Marxism.

CRUSADES AND CRUSADERS – HOW HOLY THEY REALLY WERE?

The word 'crusade' is used now often, in various contexts, but how did it all start? Learn about the initial Crusades to capture Jerusalem from its Islamic rulers from 1095 onwards, and various wars waged in the name of religion since then, from the Baltic to South America. Find out about heroes, villains and adventurers, about romantic love stories and brave knights, fervent missionaries and lost civilizations, and the idea of 'just war'.

MILLIENIUM OF RUSSIAN HISTORY - FROM PRINCES & CZARS TO EMPERORS & OLIGARCHS

Russia has been in the headlines frequently for the last few years, for good or bad reasons. The centenary of the Russian revolution, 1917 - 2017, gives another reason to talk about this fascinating country, with its rich and varied culture, turbulent history, its fabulously wealthy tsars and emperors and its Orthodox religion. In 1939 radio broadcast Churchill said: "I cannot forecast to you the action of Russia. It is a riddle, wrapped in mystery, inside an enigma; but perhaps there is a key. That key is Russian national interest." This course gives you a chance to find out for yourself whether you agree with this statement.

WELLINGTON, THE MAN AND HIS WARS

Arthur Wellesley, Duke of Wellington is best known for leading the allied forces at the Battle of Waterloo, but his successful career began as a young, untried officer during a failed campaign in Europe. This course traces Wellington's development as a military leader from that first campaign to his triumph in 1815, and looks at each campaign's successes and disasters and what made Wellington so extraordinarily good at what he did.

NAPOLEON BONAPARTE – HERO OR WAR CRIMINAL?

From his early days as an ambitious young Corsican officer, to the man who conquered Europe in the first years of the nineteenth century, Napoleon Bonaparte divides historians like few other leaders. Some see him as an enlightened reformer, ahead of his time in many ways. Others view him as a brutal conqueror, responsible for war, famine and misery for many years. This course gives an overview of Bonaparte's career and invites discussion of his character and his legacy.

BEAUTIFUL FACE OF HISTORY: WOMEN WHO CHANGED THE WORLD

Most people know about famous men – rulers. But what about women's part? Would the history of the ancient world have been the same without Cleopatra? Would the Emperor Justinian have been the same person without Empress Theodora? Would the Russian Empire have expanded under Peter III as it did under Catherine II? And there were others that deserve their place in history – Sultana Roxolana, Isabella of Castile, Christina of Sweden, Empress Josephine of France, Empress Elizabeth of Austria, Queen Isabella II of Spain, Tsarina Alexandra of Russia.
