PART C

In accordance with UCM's safeguarding requirements, all students/prospective students are asked to disclose unspent criminal convictions in order to study at UCM. This includes existing students who receive a criminal conviction whilst on a programme of study at UCM. Personal data will be retained securely on our Management Information System for the purpose of providing educational services to you whilst still relevant to the original purpose for which it was collected and will be deleted one year after completion of a course with us.

Criminal Conviction Disclosure

UCM is committed to creating learning environments where there is fairness, mutual respect, trust and equality of opportunity.

Have you ever been convicted in a criminal court, cautioned, or bound over to be of good behaviour for any offence? This includes offences under the Income Tax Act 1970 and offences under the Social Security Administration Act 1992, but not including motoring offences. Please note that you do not need to disclose convictions which are considered to be spent pursuant to the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 2001 (see www.gov.im/categories/working-in-the-isle-of-man/rehabilitation-of-offenders/ for further information). Please note that if your answer is 'yes', you should provide details of the date and type of conviction together with any sentence. We will treat all such disclosures as confidential.
